VISION FOR RECONCILIATION

Our vision for reconciliation is one in which students, staff, parents and the wider community embark together on a continued journey of truth-telling, recognition, understanding and healing, based on the principles set forth in the Uluru Statement from the Heart. On Whadjuk Nyungar boodja, guided by love for all life on earth, we want to walk together to promote equality, equity and justice. We are committed to creating authentic, respectful and long-term relationships between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and non-Indigenous Australians to ensure that reconciliation remains an integral and living entity in our school community.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

Kaya Wandjoo Whadjuk Boodja.

We take a moment today, to stop and remember how we are connected to our school. It's land; the animals from the Kookaburra's to the Bobtails; the plants, our Native Gums, wattle bushes and bush tucker garden; and the people.

At Kerry Street Community School, we acknowledge the Whadjuk Nyungar people as the Traditional Owners of the Land on which our school is built.

We also acknowledge the strength, resilience and survival of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. We recognise their status as Traditional Custodians of the vast and beautiful lands and seas across Australia, the sovereignty of which was never ceded.

Kerry Street Community School stands in support with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island peoples against intergenerational injustices and impacts upon Land, cultures, languages, families and rights.

We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging, and we thank them for sharing and caring from the land we learn, enjoy and play on.

We promise to care for this land.

Together we all stand.

Welcome to Country	Where appropriate, significant events at our school commence with a Welcome to Country. Protocols for welcoming visitors to Country have been a part of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures for thousands of years. By incorporating these protocols into formal events and important occasions, we recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the First Australians and Custodians of their Land. Celebrate National Reconciliation Week	Our school community celebrates National Reconciliation Week (NRW) which is held from 27 May to 3 June each year by talking about reconciliation in the classroom and around the school, and celebrating with the community. Teach about Reconciliation	Our school community is committed to learning about reconciliation in Australia. Having an understanding of the concept, history and progress of reconciliation is an important part of continuing the reconciliation journey. This understanding also helps to strengthen engagement with our school's RAP by positioning it within the broader story of reconciliation in Australia.	Melissa K, Taylah G, Jacey L, Carolyn M	Not Set
Teach about Days of National Significance	We commit to incorporating nationally significant days for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and reconciliation into our curriculum to increase knowledge of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories, cultures, contributions and contemporary issues. We also commit to including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives when teaching about other national days, such as 26 January (Australia Day) and ANZAC Day.	Melissa K, Taylah G, Jacey L, Carolyn M	Not Set

Acknowledgement of Country	Our school recognises the continuing connection of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to the Country on which we live, work, learn and grow. All staff and students have the opportunity to show respect to Traditional Owners and Custodians by regularly conducting an Acknowledgement of Country at meetings and events throughout the year.	Melissa K, Taylah G, Jacey L, Carolyn M	Not Set
Care for Country	We commit to actively connecting with, and caring for, the Country/place on which our school stands. This involves respectfully learning about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives, philosophies and practices about caring for Country/place, as well as physically demonstrating respect for the skies, waterways and Land on which we live and learn. We will consider First Nations perspectives as part of broader sustainability plans, policies and practices. This will reinforce the meaningful and continuous connections Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have continued to have with Country/place since time immemorial, as well as provide positive opportunities for all members of our educational community to become socially and environmentally responsible citizens who display a growing awareness of the importance of First Nations land management and sustainability.
